

Terms & Conditions

General

1. These booking terms and conditions apply to everyone who takes part in the Midnight Wander, and those who attend as spectators. They contain important information regarding participation and upon entry you agree to accept these terms and conditions.
2. All participants taking part in the Midnight Wander do so at their own risk. In no event shall Willow Wood Hospice be liable for any injuries, loss or damages whatsoever, including indirect, punitive, special, incidental or consequential losses connected with any aspect of this event.
3. If necessary you should gain advice from your GP as to whether you are physically prepared to undertake the 10km walk.
4. Photographs will be taken of participants throughout the event, these will be used on promotional materials, online and offline. It is the participant's responsibility to let staff know at registration if you do not want to appear in any such materials.

Booking process, prices and payment

1. The entry fee is non-refundable and non-transferable.
2. All ages of participants are welcome to take part in the Midnight Wander but please note a Registration Form must be completed for all participants (including under 2's). Please see detailed entry fees on Registration Form.
3. You are not permitted to use any of the sponsorship money that you raise in relation to the Midnight Wander to pay for your expenses. If you do not pass all of the money that you raise to Willow Wood Hospice you may be committing a criminal offence.

Safety

1. Children aged under 16 must be accompanied by an adult at all times, this adult must also be a registered participant in the event.
2. One registered adult can be responsible for a maximum of 5 registered children.
3. Disabled entrants are welcome to take part. However due to the nature of the event, and the length and elevation of the route, please contact the Hospice prior to booking to establish whether the event is suitable for you.
4. On no account is alcohol to be brought into the event village. Willow Wood Hospice reserve the right to refuse entry to anyone thought to be under the influence of alcohol.
5. At check-in for the event you must write the name and phone number for an emergency contact on the inside of your wristband. This must be someone not taking part in the walk.

Clothing

It is the participant's responsibility to come suitably dressed for the event considering the weather and time of year. Fancy dress is encouraged but suitable footwear should be worn.

Cameras and phones

It's a good idea to bring your camera to capture your memories of the event, but you do so completely at your own risk.

Walking on the Highway

Whilst walking the 10km route you are responsible for your own safety and that of your children and family. You should observe the normal pedestrian rules of the highway and be vigilant at all crossings and use crossing aids like zebra crossings and traffic lights where possible. There will be marshals at major junctions and also at the front and rear of the walking group, you should follow their instructions at all times.

Changes to the event

Willow Wood Hospice reserve the right to alter the start time of the event.

Cancellation

Willow Wood Hospice reserve the right to cancel this event at any time. In the event of this happening, entry fees and sponsorship will be refunded in full.

If the event is to be rescheduled we will give you as much notice as is practicable.

Data protection

The information you provide at registration will not be passed to or shared with any other organisation without your prior consent.

Disclaimer

All participants taking part in the Midnight Wander do so at their own risk. In no event shall Willow Wood Hospice or Astley Sports Village be liable for any injuries, loss or damages whatsoever.
